

Food & Drink Forum Network Membership - Get Something for Nothing

Since 1998, The Food Works^{SW} operator, The Food & Forum has assisted investment of around £40m of public funds in to the food and drink sector.

WE AIM TO: Further promote the growth of the UK's food and drink sector by offering FREE updates to keep businesses informed about funding and grants, sector trends, regulatory changes, certifications (SALSA, RED TRACTOR, BRC) and compliance – providing easy access to information that will stimulate growth and competitiveness. Businesses can also use the Forum's support to access the expertise and facilities needed to grow their businesses even further. **

As a Network Member, you can access updates, services and facilities including:

- ⇒ Updates on grant funding and support
- ⇒ Updates on availability of food grade premises including Southglade, Leicester Park and The Food Works^{SW}
- ⇒ Updates on food regulations, legislation and food management system changes through Technical Bites
- ⇒ Updates on events and networking opportunities
- ⇒ Updates on key food industry trends and market intelligence*
- ⇒ Access to and listed, if required, in our Online Directory of food and drink industry suppliers and services
- ⇒ Access to our meeting rooms and development kitchen
- ⇒ Access to our Technical experts to support you with compliance, food management standards and new product development as well as attending 'Technical Drop-In' sessions for direct one to one support

Network Membership also means that you are represented through the Forum's trade body activity that aims to promote and champion the industry with Local and National Government, Local Enterprise Partnerships and industry regulators to enable more funding and support to the sector.
